

Customer success stories

– Abu Dhabi Water and Electricity Authority (ADWEA), United Arab Emirates

CLIENT PROFILE

Abu Dhabi Water & Electricity Authority supplies water and electricity for Abu Dhabi emirate of population nearly 1.4 million inhabitants. ADWEA telecommunication network is used for managing their electric and water assets, for assuring communications between their facilities as well as for collecting metering information from customer distribution points.

INFORMATION

Technology :

GDi Ensemble Vision Network Inventory

Industry:

Energy and Utilities

IMPLEMENTED SOLUTION

The prime requirement of the ADWEA was to procure a Communication Network Management Solution to operate the resources in a consolidated way and support transforming telco operations into core operations, alongside electricity.

BENEFITS

- Supported operations for both passive and active equipment and throughout 5 departments
- Truly functional and operational network inventory system
- Manage and optimize use of network assets, CPE devices and materials
- Efficient workforce planning and scheduling